

More Fun with Food

Three ways to have more fun while reading about food with your AAC Learner!

1. Read the story from Tar Heel Reader on a tablet or computer.

2. Look in the mirror as you read and practice making surprised and "uhoh" faces. Help your AAC learner use these words to describe your face.

People who get a nice surprise may open their eyes and mouths wide and put their hands on their face.

3. Print off the story from Tar Heel Reader in PowerPoint. Circle the sentences that end with an ! and talk about what that means.

Surprise! My family got me a new puppy. I named her Roxie.
